Circle up and slow down for 90 blissful minutes of stillness and healing in a place of beauty where rescued horses find peace and sanctuary.

Come rest, reflect, release, and receive the many blessings of being with horses in creation with the Creator! You will find yourself renewed and re-energized in body, mind and spirit, ready to return to your path of love and service in the world.

This is an un-mounted, on the ground experience of sharing Sacred Space and liminal Horse Time with 2-4 horse companions who are at liberty and free to mingle and interact within the Circle as they wish. Other horses and critters at the farm will also be visibly present as you begin by pausing in the moment with some Presence Practice. Then you will be led into an extended time of soaking silence and centering prayer and meditation. That's when the Mystery unfolds, as we will allow the horses to guide the experience of this healing Circle. Think Quaker meeting- with horses!
