This fall, the Board of the Spirituality Network inaugurated a stewardship effort—the Circle of Friends—as a way to invite donors to make a recurring financial commitment in support of The Spirituality Network. The response so far has been outstanding, with 27 donors making gifts totaling more than $15,000 this first year alone. Additional pledges have been made for future years as well.

The board is taking several important steps to invite participation in the Circle of Friends. As part of our stewardship efforts, we are pleased to report that:

by Rebecca Bass

- For the first time in Network history, we are equipped to accept credit card donations. Network supporters are being contacted by mail about this new giving method.
- We are inviting supporters of the Network to prayerfully consider making a recurring monthly, quarterly, or annual donation by credit card or check.
- The Network is upgrading its computer equipment and software programs to better shepherd our community of supporters and program participants.

$35 PREPAID by April 22; $50 after. PREREGISTRATION REQUIRED (see above).

May 3, 2011, 9:30am-1pm, facilitated by Maxine Shonk, OP, at the Martin de Porres Center

Clergy ~ Chaplains ~ Spiritual Directors ~ Hospice Volunteers: If you are in any kind of caring ministry, we hope that you will join us for a day away to reflect, renew, and refresh your spirit. This day of renewal will include community prayer, discussion, silent reflection, and individual meditation time.

Sr. Maxine is a Dominican Sister of Peace, spiritual director, retreat leader, and author of Blessing upon Blessing.

SAVE THE DATE!

The Spirituality Network's Annual Celebration will be held on Thursday, June 23, 2011, 6-9pm at the Martin de Porres Center. Come celebrate the past year and welcome the beginning of the Network's 25th anniversary year. Details will be posted on our website and sent out to our Google Group e-mail list later this spring.

If you're not on the list to receive updates on Network and community events via e-mail, go to spiritualitynetwork.org and click on "Join our Google Group" box in the lower right corner.

SACRED FEMININE

Our cultural heritage gives us images of The Divine that are overwhelmingly masculine. How do women recognize and claim that they, too, are created in God's likeness? Join us on the second Tuesday of each month as we gather for discussion, reflection, and exploration on a variety of topics that help us to connect to uniquely feminine aspects of The Divine. Our intention is to discover more balance, create more peace, and offer more hope to our world.

In order for us to plan accordingly, PLEASE PREREGISTER: 614/228-8867 or spiritnetwk@hotmail.com.

COMING HOME TO MYSELF: REFLECTIONS ON THE WRITING OF MARION WOODMAN
April 12, 2011, 2-4pm
Facilitated by Amanda Stone Cushing
Location: Spirituality Network, 444 East Broad St.
Suggested donation: $5
PLEASE RSVP: 614/228-8867

Marion Woodman is a widely read author, speaker, leader in feminine development research and teaching, and a Jungian analyst. Coming Home to Myself, by Jill Mellick, PhD, is a collection of excerpts from Woodman's prolific writings that invite us to pause, reflect, and respond to our own inner wisdom. We will discuss several excerpts and respond through discussion and individual reflection.

ALL OF ME: CONNECTING SOUL AND BODY
May 10, 2011, 2-4pm
Facilitated by Mo Meuse
Location: Franklin Park Conservatory, 1777 E Broad St
Suggested donation: $5
PLEASE RSVP: 614/228-8867

Through a series of experiences, including music, explorations of the gardens, walking meditation, and body prayer, we will explore the connection of body and soul.

Meet in the Serenity Garden of the Meuses, which is the first garden on the right as you enter the Scotts Miracle Gro Community Garden Campus on the southeast corner of the Conservatory property. In case of rain, meet in the Education Pavilion in the Community Garden Campus.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Patricia J. Gibboney, CFRE

People often wonder how they might get involved as a volunteer with The Spirituality Network. Let me take this opportunity to not only share with you some suggested ways to get involved, but to emphasize how much we value the many personal gifts that continue to be shared with us.

The Network has a strong legacy of volunteer power that has been the foundation of its success for almost 25 years. Many people are unaware that the current staff is part time but it is with the support of volunteers that the day-to-day operation functions at a full-time basis.

There are endless ways to get involved. Some provide a one-time opportunity whereas others are short term or ongoing for a limited time, such as a committee membership. You can lend professional skills, talents, and experience to help strengthen the organization. You can share your gifts, your vision, and your ideas by getting involved.

The Spirituality Network has had an impact on the daily lives of many and we continue to do so. We offer a unique experience and we hope that you will prayerfully consider a way to become involved. You will be benefitting both yourself and the Network. Some opportune ways to consider are listed on this page.

As always, I am available to accept calls, e-mails, and notes with your comments and ideas. Let me know if you wish to discuss getting involved. With a heart filled with gratitude, I thank you for being connected to The Spirituality Network.

You may never know what results come of your action, but if you do nothing, there will be no results. ~ Gandhi

REFLECTIONS FROM THE CHAIR BEEFLECTIONS?

Dear Friends,

Having recently spent a considerable amount of time traveling—away from home, I am discovering a new appreciation for home and all it signifies for me. I find myself pondering the notion of home and what it represents. I love to travel; enjoying new sights, uncharted adventures, new or renewed connections, creation of memories and relationships. Nonetheless, after a while, I find myself longing for home and looking forward to coming home. What is home? What is it that I long for, I wonder? Is it that place of belonging, of comfort and familiarity?

My pondering nudged me to consult Webster and I found that Webster has much to say about home. In addition to defining home as a place, environment or shelter—there are numerous qualities, values and emotional attachments ascribed to home such as a valued place of refuge, the place where something is discovered, a source place, the center or heart of something. All of these definitions resonate and yet somehow there is something deeper and richer and difficult to contain in words.

A number of adages come into my mind as well. “There’s no place like home!” is one of them. And, in these difficult economic times, I am painfully aware that not everyone has a home. Many who had homes have lost them. I also often hear it said, “Home is where the heart is.” That indicates to me that you can be at home wherever you are, provided you feel grounded and comfortable in your own skin. Yet, not everyone has the satisfaction of feeling at home either in their surroundings or in their life circumstances.

I’ve heard many remarks from different people saying that the Spirituality Network is like home to them. “I feel like I’ve found a home” or “I feel so at home with the people or the offerings of the Network” are sentiments commonly expressed. I understand this. In and through the existence of the Spirituality Network many, me included, have found a comfortable, safe, nurturing place—a spiritual home and sense of being at home, of being accepted and nurtured. What a testimony to the value of the Network!

From my pondering, I’m left with a strong feeling of gratitude for the ways I experience home. I am increasingly aware that we also share the capacity to provide home in some way for others. There are so many seekers—fellow travelers on the road who are looking for a place of belonging. There are so many who are looking for a way that will lead them home—to the Source—to the God of Life! That is the sense of home that we can offer one another with our compassion and care. When we discover this place, no matter how far we travel or wander, we are at home even in our longing.

Blessings and Peace be with you,
Katherine Murphy Mertzluft

WELLSTREAMS: AN ECUMENICAL TRAINING PROGRAM IN SPIRITUAL FORMATION AND DEVELOPMENT

www.wellstreamscolumbus.org

Our seventh class in Wellstreams is completing the remaining requirements and many are participating in the optional courses that are offered in the sixth semester. Graduation will take place on Wednesday, May 11, 2011 at 7:30pm in the Martin De Porres Center for family and friends.

Our eighth class in Wellstreams is in the middle of their second semester courses: The Divine –Human Encounter (prayer course) and Human Development, Personality Type and Spirituality. They will complete their second semester on June 10-11, 2011 with a Discernment Retreat.

Beginning in September 2011, registration will open for our ninth Wellstreams class, which will begin in August 2012. Watch for our fall workshop schedule in the next newsletter.

Those of us whose lives have been touched by the Spirituality Network value deeply the sense of community we experience through our association with the Network and with one another. This quote from Henri Nouwen captures this experience:

Community is first of all a quality of the heart. It grows from the spiritual knowledge that we are alive not for ourselves but for one another.

~ from Bread for the Journey

It is the mutuality of the relationships fostered by the Network—in Wellstreams, Women to Women, busy-person retreats, spiritual direction, and the multitude of programs—that brings about the community we value so deeply. Thank you for the many ways your hearts have touched ours at the Network and for your faithful support.

Rebecca Bass is a member of the Spirituality Network Board of Directors and chair of the Development Committee.

May the God who forms COMMUNITY be with you. May you engage this God in mutual attention to what is holy and fulfilling for the other, to what brings joy and delight and depth of understanding. May your communion with this God move you to growth in your inner spirit and to warmth and compassion for a world that awaits connection with its Creator. May the God of COMMUNITY bless you all your days.*

Richardson, Jan L. In the Sanctuary of Women: A Companion for Reflection and Prayer. Nashville, TN: Upper Room Books, 2010.

In the 1990s, Jan Richardson was searching for a resource for prayer and reflection that would engage her experience as a woman in the church. Eventually, she had to write it herself (Sacred Journeys, Upper Room Books, 1995). Her new book continues the conversation about prayer that is “carried in our bones and our blood, passed down from body to body.” She invites readers into this sanctuary to discover what prayers are embedded in their DNA, to bring out the pages of their own stories that remain hidden.

Each of the six chapters is “hosted” by a woman from sacred history. Each chapter’s readings, prayers, poems, and blessings explore the landscape of this woman’s life and assist readers in making connections with their own lives. These focal women include Eve, Brigid of Kildare, the Desert Mothers, Hildegard of Bingen, Harriet Powers (former slave, quilter), and the bride of the Song of Songs.

Richardson’s intention in focusing on women’s prayer is not to suggest a universal women’s experience or to isolate women’s prayer practices from those of men. Her book elaborates on the lesser known legacy of women of prayer across the ages. Thus, it is also a useful resource for men who are pastors or spiritual directors for women.

I have long been inspired by Jan Richardson’s melding of collage and lectionary reflections in her blog, The Painted Prayerbook (<http://paintedprayerbook.com>). A companion blog for the new book (<http://sanctuaryofwomen.com>) offers a guide for reading groups and additional resources.

WINGS AND PRAYERS QUILT MINISTRY

The first group of completed quilts was delivered to Odyssey Hospice early in March. Contact Mary Ellen George if you are interested in participating in any aspect of this ministry to make quilts for hospice patients. Join us on the first Saturday of each month at the Network office. E-mail kmgeorge@wowway.com or call 614/878-1920.

If you can't help with the sewing, please consider donations. We are making 40" x 56" lap size, tied quilts and could always use 100% cotton needed batting, backing, and fabric. Coupons or gift cards for Jo-ann Fabrics stores would also be appreciated.
