For persons with too much to do and too little time for reflection on what is most important in God's universe. No need to expect a miracle. Faith is enough.

Refresh and renew your spirit at our Contemplative Fall Retreat. We will explore the gifts and wisdom embedded within our imperfections; exploring the idea that our flaws themselves can lead us to the Center, our Essence, where Yahweh is. Retreatants will be invited to consider the gifts of our "flaws" and to discover the wisdom to be found within them. Using the poetry of Wendell Berry and David Whyte, along with scripture, wood fragments, pottery, and his own beautiful nature photographs, Rev. John Holliger will provide rich fodder for meditation. We will gather for prayer, discussion, and reflection each evening and morning, allowing extended time during the day for individual meditation.

The Rev. John Holliger is a retired Episcopal priest and a nature photographer. John has been an Episcopal priest for more than 3 decades, serving parishes in Connecticut and Ohio. To view his photography, visit www.photographybyjohnholliger.net.
